Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

> Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claim 16 directs to information stored on a medium .Since the information do not provide any function interrelationship to the medium to control medium, read out the information and access the information , or impart to any software and hardware structural components to provide certain function that is processed by a computer, the information on the medium do not make them statutory. See MPEP 2100. It is noted that the body of claims contain only non- functional information and there is no means or circuit used for access and control the recited information. It is noted that in the body of claims, there is no recitation for any functions of the stored information , or means or circuit to interact with the stored information to provide certain function to control the medium or access the information .

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
> (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 16-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kim et al (6,421,499).

Regarding claims 16,17 and 18, Kim discloses a method for recording data on a recording medium , said data including control information and audio/video data having a still picture video object, said medium comprising:

a control information area for storing, a still picture audio/video file information table including still picture audio/video file information for managing the still picture video object, original program chain information (Fig. 1-3) , a user defined program chain information table (Fig. 2) including one or more pieces of user defined program chain information, each of which has a given number, and video manager information located at a leading portion of the control information area, said video manager information including playlist search pointer information containing program chain number information corresponding to the given number of the user defined program chain information (Fig. 1 column 50 to column 2, line 35, lines 60-67), wherein said still picture audio/video file information includes group information of the still picture video object, said group information includes entry information of the still picture video object; and a data area for recording the audio/video data is configured to include a sub-picture stream (text stream) , wherein said entry information includes entry type information containing number information indicating whether the sub-picture stream is included (column 2, lines 30-39, Figs 1,2).

Further for claims 18 and 19 , Kim teaches reproducing the data from the recording medium (column 2, lines 39-47, Fig. 4)

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kageyama et al teaches apparatus for recording still images .
